Essential Guide

AUSTRAVEL

Australia, New Zealand & South Pacific

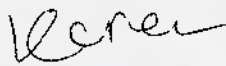

We don't just go there, we know there

Austravel love Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific, and we want to share our passion with you.

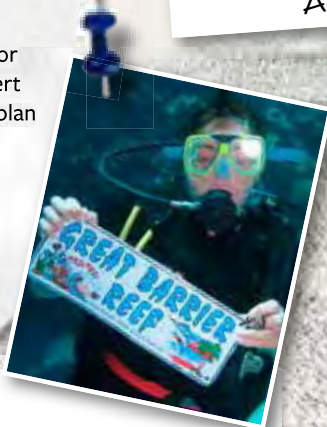

For almost 40 years Austravel have been creating inspirational holidays for travellers to Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific, each one individually tailor-made to suit personal requirements. All our expert Travel Designers have travelled extensively, and are keen to share their 'Austravel Secrets' and recommendations to ensure that wherever you want to go, and whatever you want to see and do whilst there we can plan your trip.

The 'Essential Guide' by Austravel will help inspire you to create that once in a lifetime holiday – exactly as you want it. It is bursting with ideas to suit all tastes and budgets, and these can be combined to create a unique holiday perfect for you. There are so many wonderful experiences to include, such as spotting the diverse wildlife, trying world class food & wines, and of course, experiencing local cultures. There is the opportunity to add an epic rail journey, or to simply sit back and enjoy an escorted tour. Those more adventurous may prefer to pick up a car or campervan and have the freedom to explore at their own pace. For even more ideas visit Austravel.com and use our Travel Plan to create that perfect trip.

Regardless if it is your first trip 'Down-under' or if you regularly visit friends or family, our expert Travel Designers look forward to helping you plan your perfect holiday.

TRAVEL IN STYLE WITH AUSTRAVEL AND QANTAS

When travelling to Australia, your journey should be as memorable as the destination. As you step on board the Qantas A380 you will experience an exceptional level of comfort, innovation and style in any of the four cabins.

Qantas operates flights on the award-winning Qantas A380 from London Heathrow to Sydney and Melbourne, both via Dubai, with convenient choice of afternoon or evening departures.

Experience Australia like a local and go walkabout with the Qantas Walkabout Pass. You can customise your trip and get a great deal on your Australia and New Zealand domestic flights. With more than 20 Walkabout Pass destinations to choose from, the Qantas Walkabout Pass is a great way to see more. Ask your Travel Consultant about the Qantas Walkabout Pass, and book with your international ticket to save.

The Qantas A380

Relax on board the award-winning Qantas A380. Economy offers multi-adjustment headrests, cushioned armrests and a unique 'footnet'* support. Premium Economy offers more room and comfort, in a private 35 seat upper deck cabin. It feels special and it is, with extra wide seats and leg rests to keep you comfortable. Choose Business and enjoy the fully flat, almost 2m long Skybed with a mattress, duvet and pyjamas for extra comfort. Choose Premium Economy or Business to take advantage of Select on Q-Eat and choose your meal in advance online from a wider selection. There are also 14 First Suites available. Both Business and First mean you can enjoy the convenience of the complimentary Qantas Chauffeur Drive service too. Whichever cabin you're in, look forward to over 1,000 entertainment options and your cabin crew will be doing everything they can to ensure you enjoy the journey.

Cathay Pacific Premium Economy

CATHAY PACIFIC

One of only 7 airlines to have been awarded a five star rating from Skytrax, Cathay Pacific has a well-deserved reputation for providing a premium product and outstanding service. Based in Hong Kong and with the option to stopover, Cathay Pacific is ideally positioned as the natural gateway to Asia, Australia and New Zealand.

Cathay Pacific now offers its UK passengers better-than-ever connectivity, with non-stop services from both London and Manchester to Hong Kong, where passengers can connect seamlessly to over 180 destinations worldwide including seven destinations in Australia and New Zealand. It operates Economy, Premium Economy, and Business cabins on all services out of the UK, with First class cabins also available on select flights out of London.

Cathay Pacific, this year celebrating 70 years of providing excellent service to its passengers, was the proud winner of the Best Transpacific Airline award at the Skytrax World Airline Awards 2015. It believes that travelling well is an important part of living well. That's why it continually strives to enhance the overall travel experience, investing in developing its cabins, food and beverages and in-flight entertainment to offer passengers an unrivalled experience.

Cathay Pacific Premium Economy

Singapore Airlines operates four daily non-stop flights from London Heathrow to Singapore as well as a daily flight from Manchester, with seamless convenient onward connections to key gateway cities in Australia and New Zealand.

Our partner carrier Virgin Australia allows you to choose from over 40 exciting destinations spanning right across Australia and for those venturing to New Zealand can enjoy increased frequencies and connections with our alliance carrier Air New Zealand.

The airline's multi award winning 5* service offers an optimum level of comfort across all classes, including three-course gourmet cuisine and extensive on demand in-flight entertainment providing personal TV screens from 10.6" – 23" depending on the cabin class. Flying Singapore Airlines also means a hassle-free transfer through Singapore's award winning Changi Airport.

Experience the comfort of the A380 from London to Singapore and selected departures to Australia. The airline also operates state of the art Boeing 777-300ER featuring next generation enhanced seating in all cabins and the most advance In-flight entertainment system in the world.

Singapore Airlines is pleased to announce the launch of its brand new Premium Economy Class dedicated cabin which launched from London Heathrow August 2015. Enjoy many privileges both on and off the ground. Take advantage of our free 'Book the Cook' service and choose from a range of local delights to international classics accompanied with a glass of champagne or two, otherwise take your pick from a wide range of beverages. Enjoy a host of privileges with priority check-in & boarding, baggage handling, 35kg baggage allowance and 10% more KrisFlyer Miles.

AIR NEW ZEALAND

Award-winning Air New Zealand has introduced one of the world's most innovative long-haul flight experiences and as the airline that flies passengers on some of the world's longest routes, there's not much Air New Zealand doesn't know about longhaul travel.

Whether you choose their Economy cabin, designed with comfort and room in mind, Premium Economy where you can enjoy more seat recline to really stretch out and relax (travel via Los Angeles to try out their revolutionary Premium Economy Spaceseat™*), or their lie-flat bed in Business Premier, whichever cabin you chose to travel in you can be sure of Air New Zealand's unique Kiwi style and on-board hospitality.

You can also enjoy fresh New Zealand inspired menu options, delicious New Zealand wines and a state of the art touch screen inflight entertainment system where you can order snacks and drinks 'on demand' at the touch of a screen – even while you are in the middle of a movie*.

As well as a daily flight from London to New Zealand via Los Angeles, Air New Zealand offers more ways to New Zealand with a range of attractive stopover destinations using their partner airlines. You can also include a variety of fantastic Pacific Island stopovers en route.

*available via Los Angeles only

Malaysia Airlines is a multi-award winning five-star airline, offering the only non-stop A380 service between the UK and Malaysia and fast, easy connections to the widest choice of destinations across Southeast Asia and Australasia. Well-known for its award winning cabin crew providing gracious and warm Malaysian hospitality, the airline has received over 100 awards in over 40 years and on 1 February 2013, Malaysia Airlines joined the world's premier global airline alliance oneworld.

Malaysia Airlines flies the latest A380 aircraft twice daily from London Heathrow to Kuala Lumpur, with convenient connections to onward destinations in Asia, Australia and New Zealand. As you would expect from an award-winning carrier, flying with Malaysia Airlines' A380 is an experience to savour. Once onboard, you can enjoy comfortable and spacious seating, inspired menu choices including the Chef on Call pre-order service for First and Business Class, an easy-to-use Thales touch-screen, on-demand system offering the latest in-flight entertainment, a USB port in all classes.

Those travelling from Manchester, Edinburgh, Glasgow and Aberdeen can take advantage of Malaysia Airlines' partner agreement with British Airways.

AUSTRALIA

A vast country of varying landscapes, Australia boasts a rich indigenous history dating back 50,000 years, stunning tropical rainforests, endless beautiful white-sand beaches, not forgetting the world's largest and most spectacular coral reef.

INTRODUCTION TO AUSTRALIA

Three time zones, three million square miles, twenty three million people. Lush tropical rainforests, the sparkling azure waters of the Great Barrier Reef, and hard-baked red earth of the Outback. Australia is a country just waiting to be explored, with mystical stories of Aboriginal Dreamtime and endless white sand beaches. It's easy to see why so many visitors fall in love with the cosmopolitan cities, relaxed easy-going lifestyle, world-class cuisine and New World wines.

TOP EXPERIENCES

Great Barrier Reef – take the plunge and snorkel, dive or even fly over the Great Barrier Reef – the World's largest living organism.

Tropical Rainforest - venture into the lush ancient rainforest in Queensland – but watch out for those crocs!

Kangaroo Island - see native wildlife and rugged coastline in this 'zoo without fences'.

Sydney Harbour – soak up the iconic views of the Opera House and Harbour Bridge.

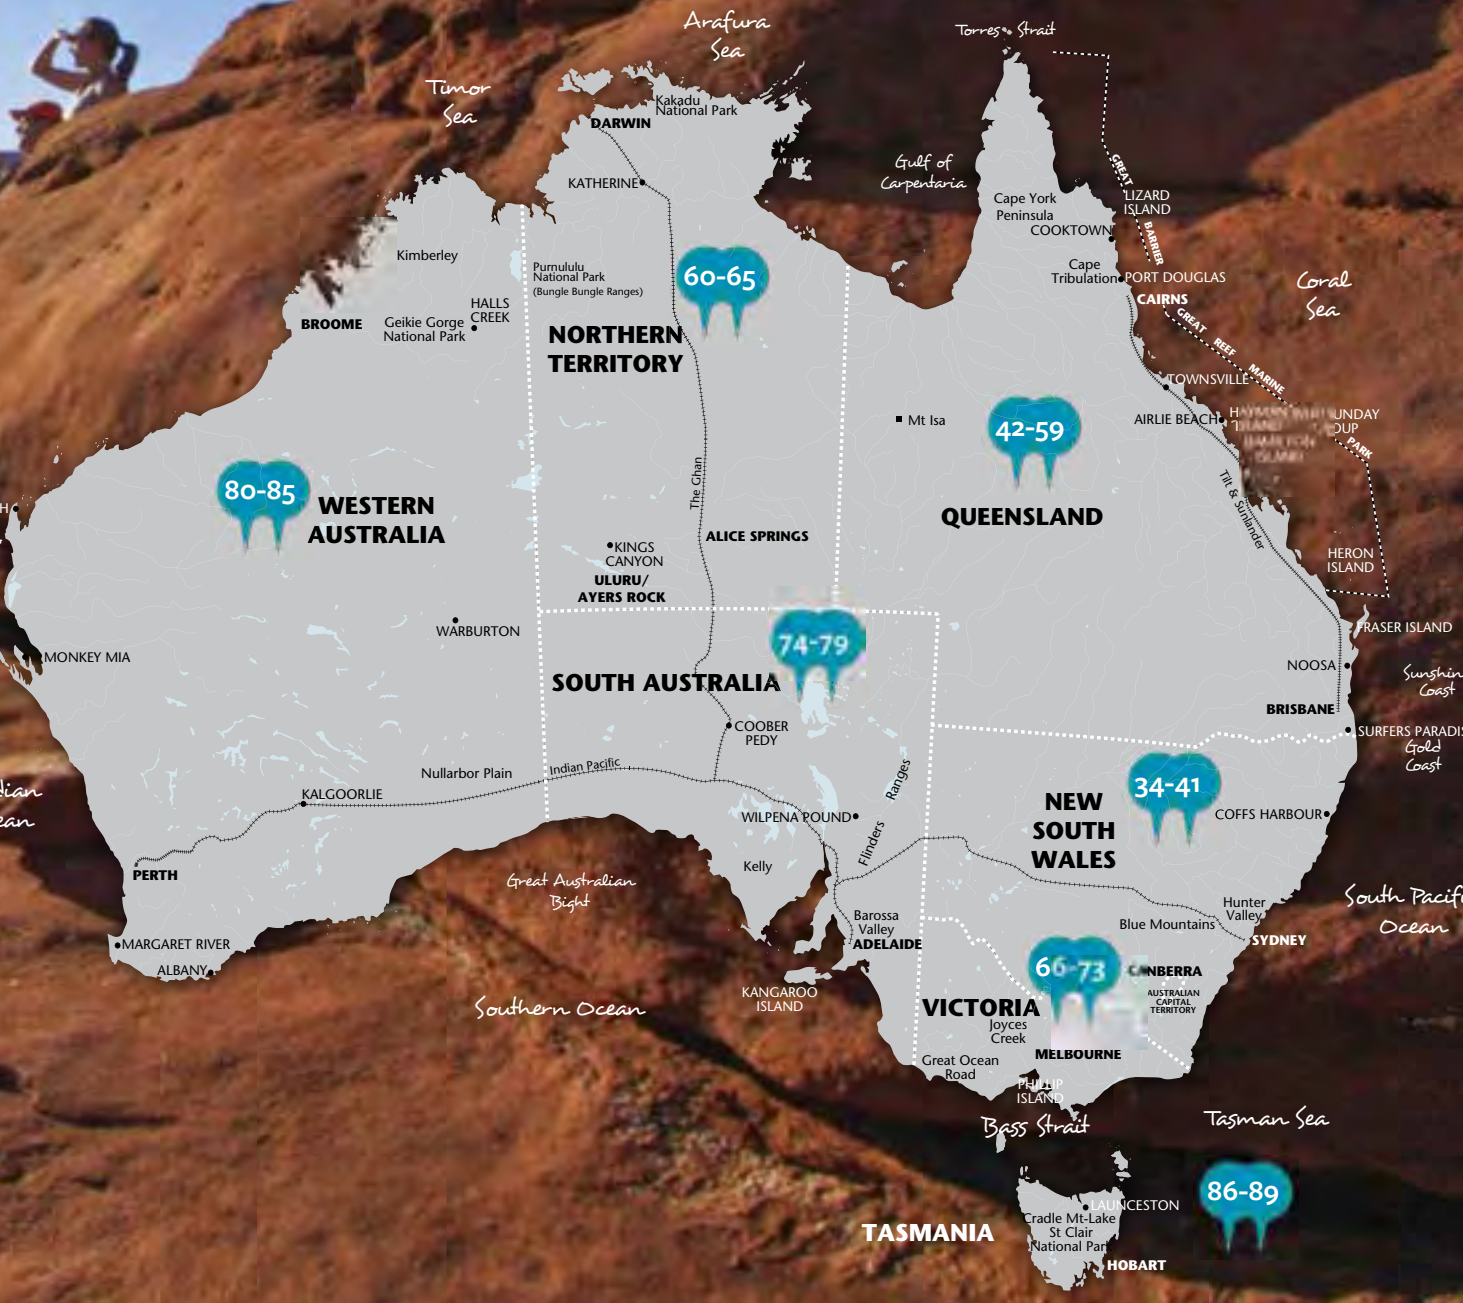

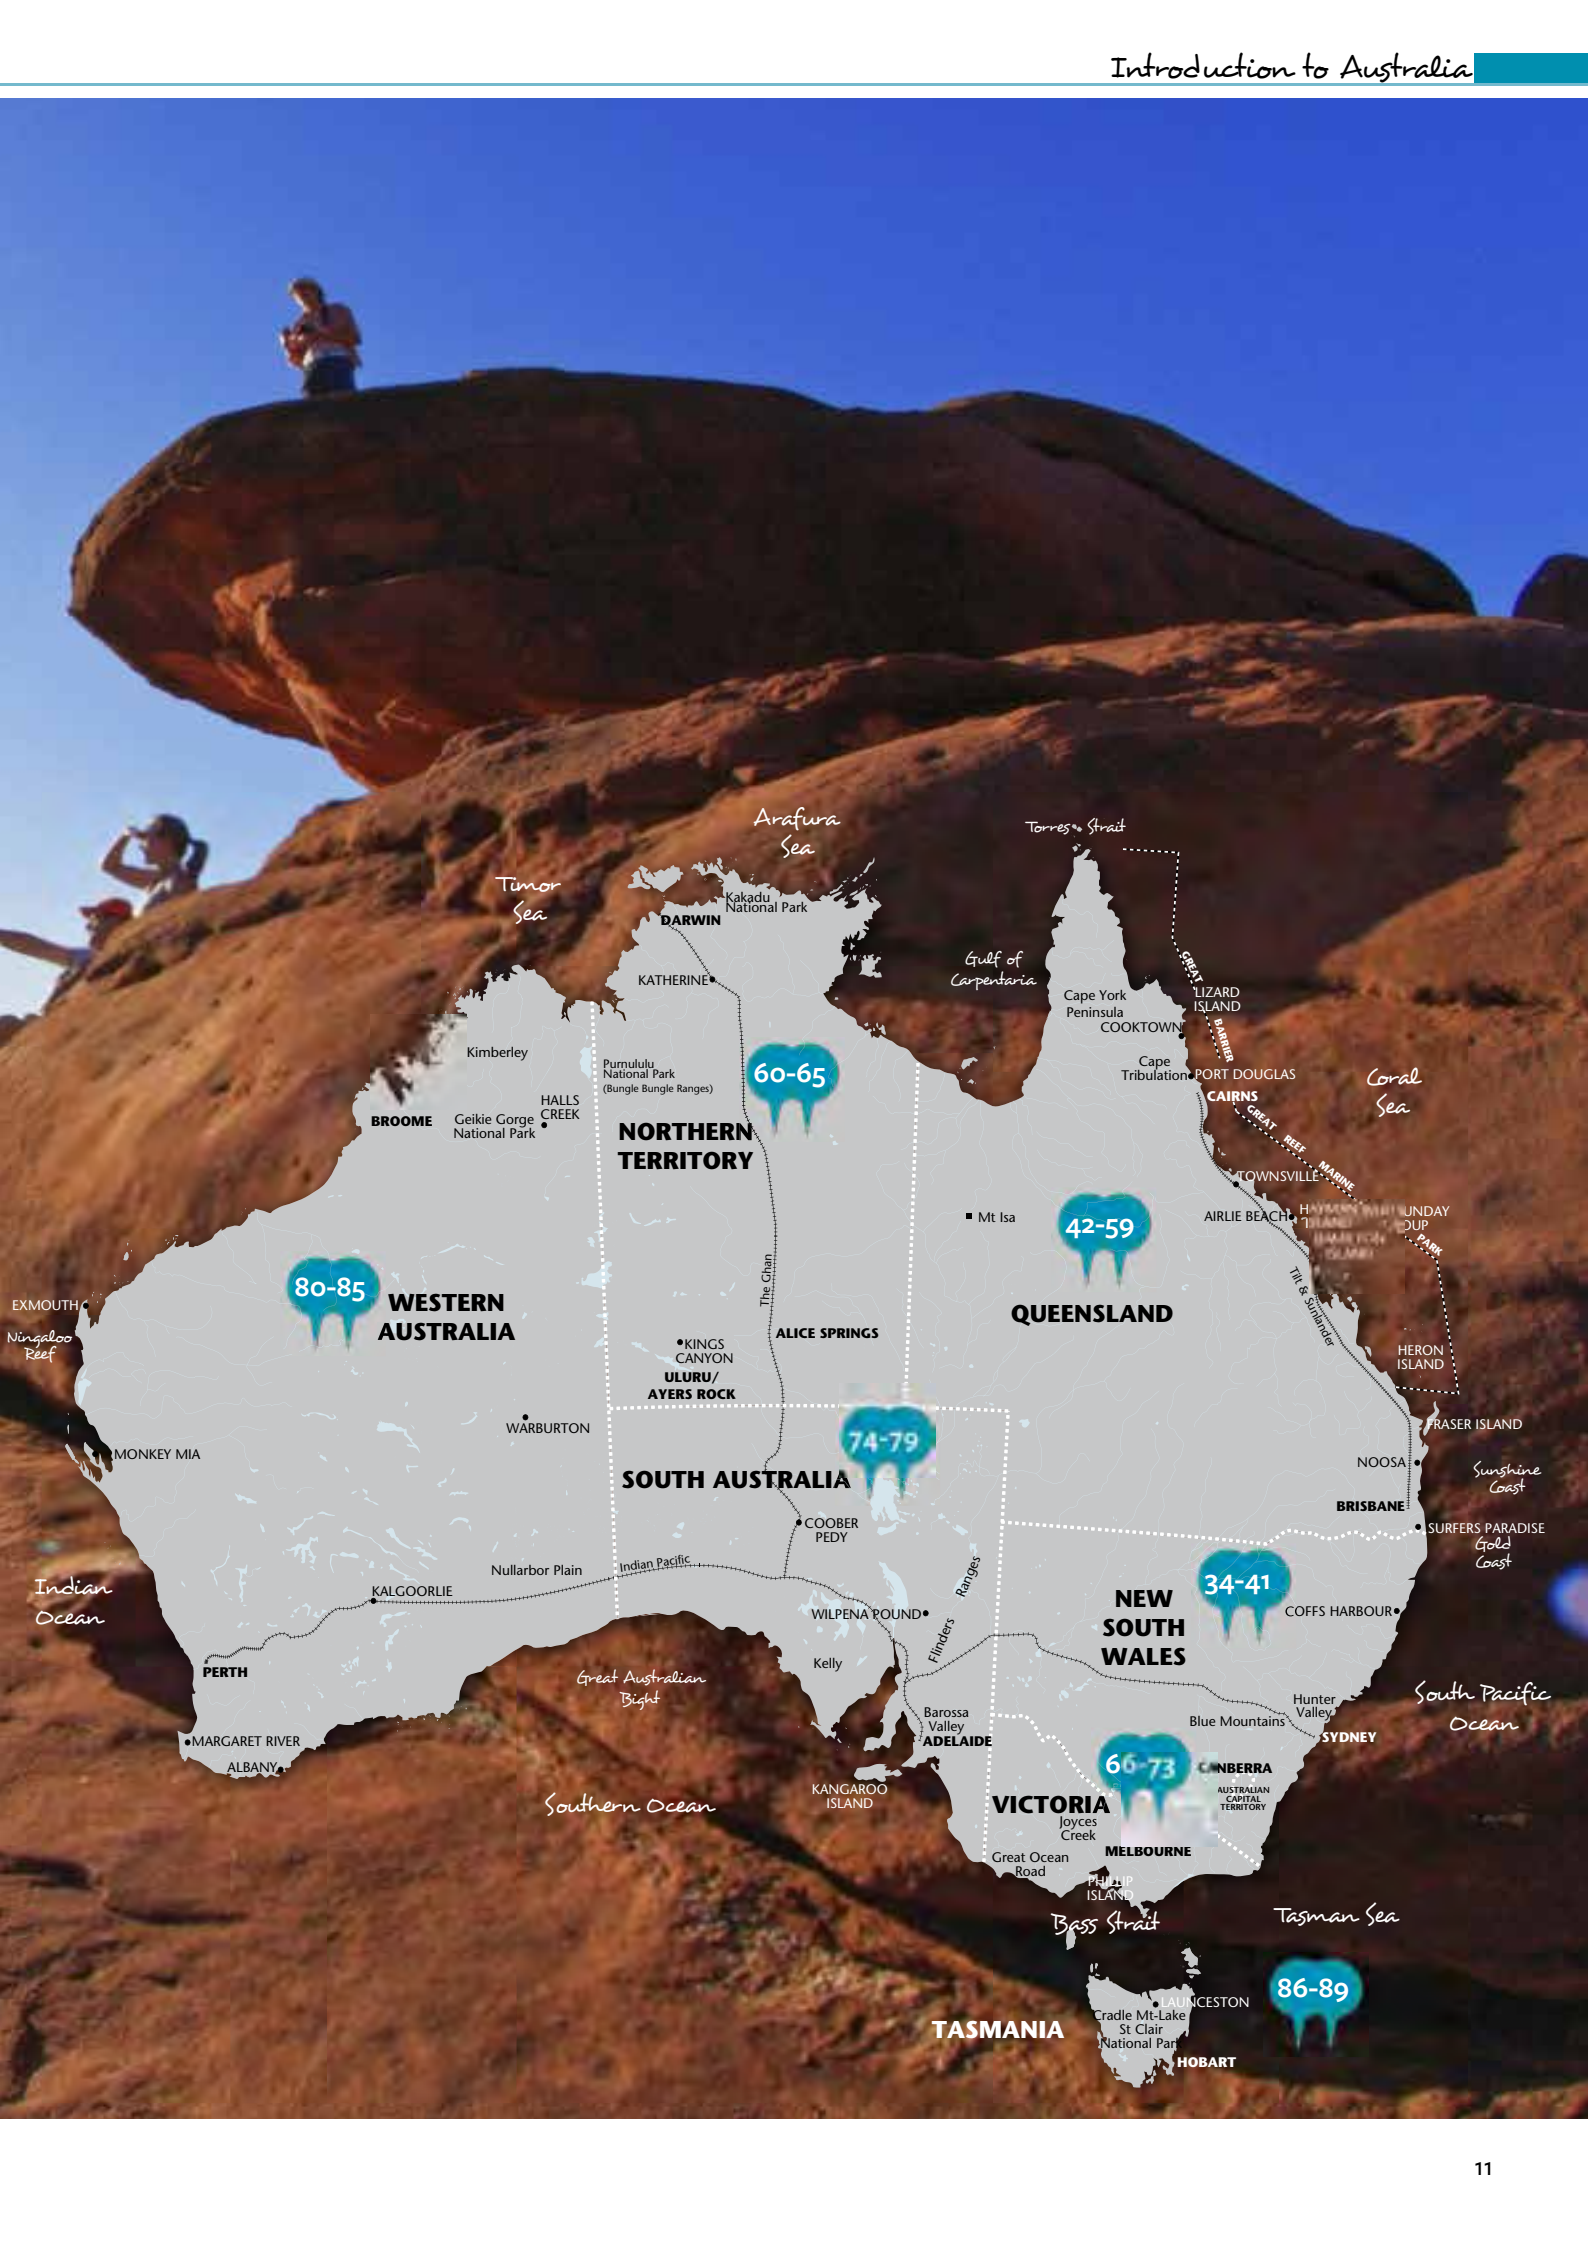

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

Currency – the currency in Australia is the Dollar (AUD)

Climate – a fantastic year round destination, being in the Southern Hemisphere, the seasons are opposite to those in Europe. Summers extend from December to February, with winter in June to August. Northern Australia has a tropical climate with the traditionally wetter months from November to March.

Visa – all visitors to Australia (except New Zealand citizens) require an Electronic Travel Authority (ETA). This can be organised by your Travel Designer at the time of booking.

Let Austravel tailor-make your dream trip, after all we don't just go there, we know there!

WHAT'S ON IN AUSTRALIA

When planning your holiday, take a look at our top picks of events and festivals happening across the country. Whether you want to enjoy the famous tennis in Melbourne, take to a dance floor at a music festival in the vineyards, or see the regions when the weather is at its best, there's an abundance of activities to keep you entertained.

JANUARY

Australia Day, National

Australia Day provides the opportunity to come together and rejoice in the nation's achievements. Join in the celebrations with street parties and outdoor BBQ's, or see Perth's impressive firework display over Kings Park.

Australian Open, Melbourne

Played across a two week period, this major tennis tournament is the first Grand Slam of the year, with the finals fought out on court at the Rod Laver Arena.

FEBRUARY

Sand Sculpting Championships, Surfers Paradise

Watch as over 180 tonnes of sand is transformed into impressive sand sculptures on the Gold Coast. This annual free event is held over a weekend, with sculptors from around the world battling it out for the Championship title.

MARCH

Australian Grand Prix, Melbourne

A favourite of both drivers and fans, the street circuit sees a high speed race through a combination of public roads at Albert Park.

Ten Days Festival, Tasmania

As Australia's only state wide international arts festival, this biennial event features international artists and events from island locations; a chance to explore stately homes, museums and theatres across the island.

APRIL

Anzac Day, National

An annual remembrance of what war means to the people of Australia, as parades, marches and ceremonies take place across the country with Dawn Services commencing at sunrise.

MAY

Vivid Festival, Sydney

The annual light and music festival immerses the city of Sydney in vibrant colours. Enjoy an array of music performances and witness the Opera House transform with vivid projections covering the famous sails each evening.

JUNE

Whale Watching, Queensland

The migration of the Humpback Whales begins in June, as they head north passing through the areas of the southern Great Barrier Reef.

JULY

Dry Season, Northern Territory

Visit the waterfront city of Darwin, and the spectacular national parks of Kakadu and Litchfield, as the monsoon seasons ends and flora begins to bloom on clear, crisp days.

Camel Cup, Alice Springs

One of the most unusual races you will ever encounter, the Camel Cup is an annual race at Blatherskite Park in Central Australia, an hour from Alice Springs.

AUGUST

Hamilton Island Race Week, Queensland

Australia's favourite yachting event, scores of spectators and sailors head to the stunning Whitsunday Islands to see exciting racing through the azure Queensland waters.

SEPTEMBER

Fringe Festival, Melbourne

The Melbourne Fringe Festival is an art festival to showcase the city's metropolitan culture and creativity. With shows ranging from comedy and visual arts, to cabaret and dance, there is something for everyone.

OCTOBER

Opera in the Vineyards, New South Wales

As the sun sets over the vineyards of the Hunter Valley, the spring air is filled with operatic notes at this unmissable event. Enjoy a spectacular evening of fine wine, gourmet food and fantastic music as you are surrounded by stunning views.

NOVEMBER

Margaret River Gourmet Escape, Western Australia

Set in the scenic, rolling countryside of this famous wine region, the weekend is a culinary spectacle for food, wine and music lovers.

Melbourne Cup Carnival, Victoria

One of the most prestigious events in the racing calendar, the Melbourne Cup is a four day carnival attracting thousands to take a punt on the thoroughbreds taking part in the two mile course.

DECEMBER

New Years Eve, National

As the clock strikes midnight the world rejoices in the New Year. Celebrate in Sydney watching the fireworks from a rooftop bar, or splurge and see the celebrations from the famous harbour on a gourmet cruise.

FIRST TIME ESSENTIALS

A perfect way to introduce Australia to any first time visitor to the 'land downunder', combining the icons of Sydney, the fiery red sands of the Outback, and the spectacular colours of the Great Barrier Reef. At Austravel we want to make sure you're not missing out – so will pre-book a Sydney Harbour cruise, Blue Mountains day tour, sunset viewing at Ayers Rock, along with sunrise discovery walk, plus the Skyrail gondola travelling high above the tropical rainforest in Queensland, and a day on the Great Barrier Reef. The holiday of a lifetime!

Sydney Rock and Reef

12 Day Suggested Itinerary from £959 per adult

DAY 1: SYDNEY

Land into Sydney and check in to your central hotel. With the rest of the day to explore – why not head to Circular Quay to get your first glimpse of the world famous Opera House, and iconic Harbour Bridge, before ending the day with dinner in the historic Rocks District right under the famous Bridge.

DAY 2: CRUISE THE HARBOUR

Spend a relaxing morning exploring the Harbour aboard Captain Cook's Harbour Story Cruise – the best way to get some great photos of the city. This afternoon why not head out to one of Sydney's famous beaches of Bondi or Manly, it's up to you!

DAY 3: BLUE MOUNTAINS

Venture out of Sydney to the famed Blue Mountains, where steep canyons meet lush eucalypt forests. See the magnificent Three Sisters rock formation, tour the small town of Leura and opt to take a ride on the world's steepest scenic railway.

DAY 4: DAY AT LEISURE

A free day to explore the city and its surroundings. Take a scenic seaplane flight, climb to the top of the Harbour Bridge, picnic in the manicured Botanical Gardens, and dine in one of the sumptuous waterfront restaurants.

Blue Mountains

DAY 5: RED CENTRE – SUNSET OVER THE ROCK

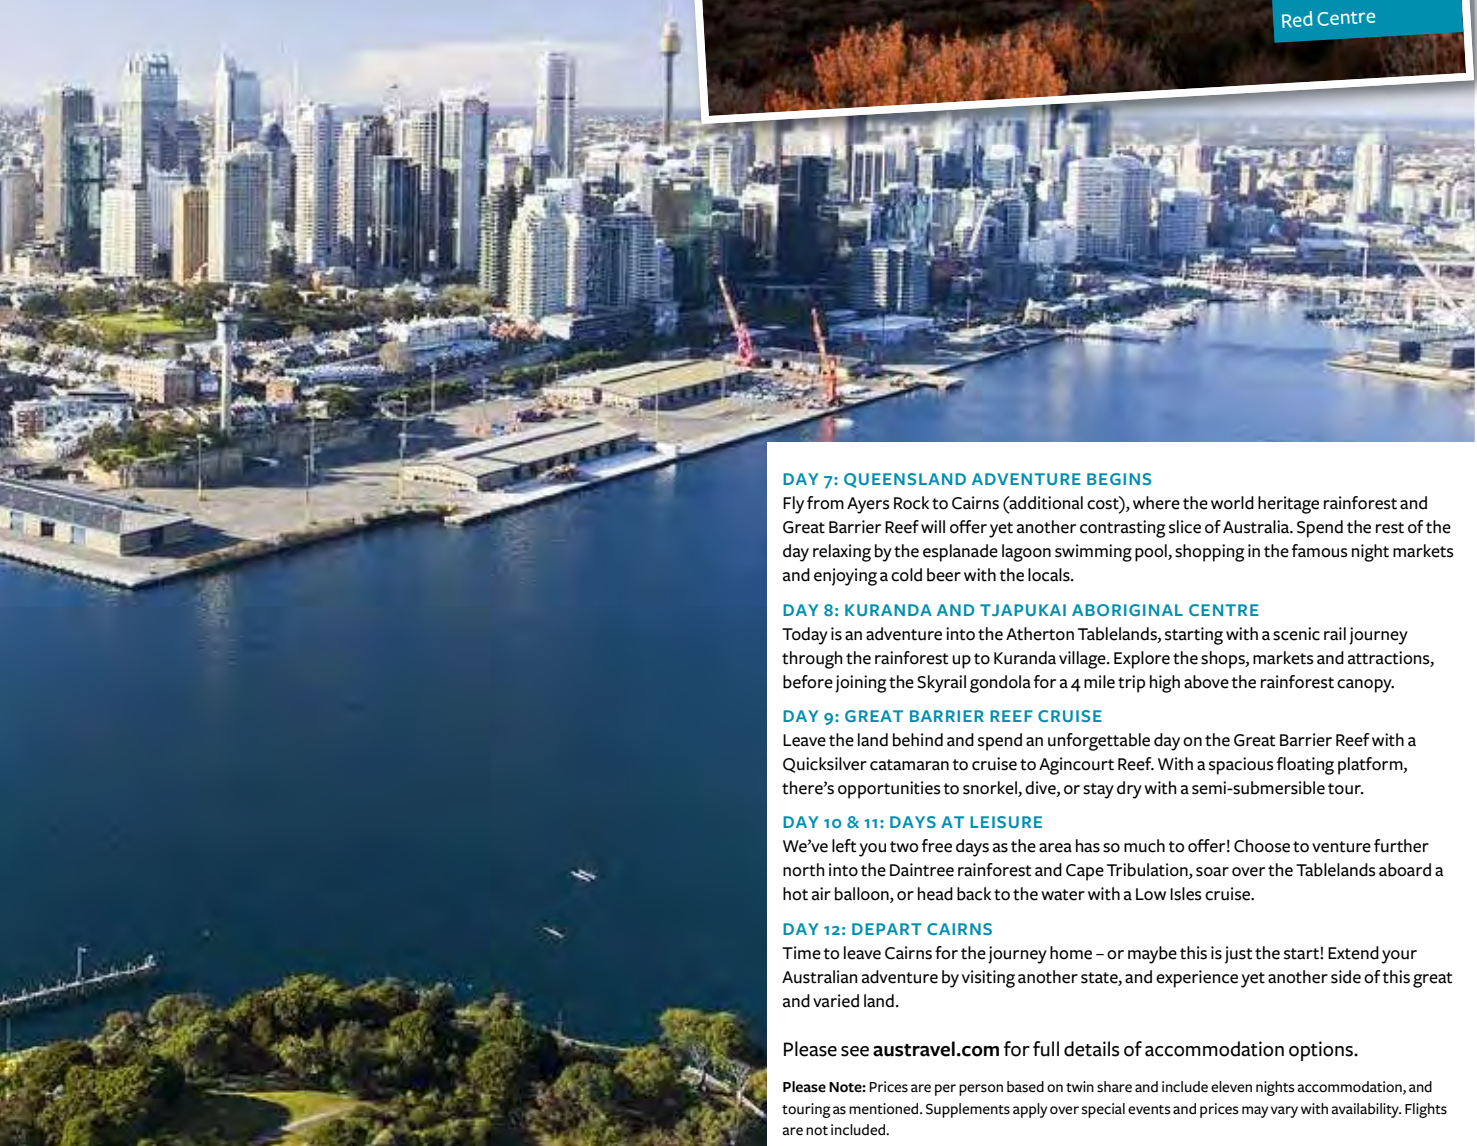

Leave the city behind and fly into the heart of the Red Centre (additional cost). Uluru (Ayers Rock) is visually stunning, and a major site of Aboriginal importance. This evening watch the sun set behind the glowing red monolith, colours changing as the light fades. A view to behold!

DAY 6: ULURU SUNRISE AND KATA TJUTA

An early start will be rewarded as the rising sun creates even more varied perspectives of Uluru. Walk part of the base of the rock, before heading to Kata Tjuta (Olgas) for a guided walk through Walpa Gorge.

Red Centre

DAY 7: QUEENSLAND ADVENTURE BEGINS

Fly from Ayers Rock to Cairns (additional cost), where the world heritage rainforest and Great Barrier Reef will offer yet another contrasting slice of Australia. Spend the rest of the day relaxing by the esplanade lagoon swimming pool, shopping in the famous night markets and enjoying a cold beer with the locals.

DAY 8: KURANDA AND TJAPUKAI ABORIGINAL CENTRE

Today is an adventure into the Atherton Tablelands, starting with a scenic rail journey through the rainforest up to Kuranda village. Explore the shops, markets and attractions, before joining the Skyrail gondola for a 4 mile trip high above the rainforest canopy.

DAY 9: GREAT BARRIER REEF CRUISE

Leave the land behind and spend an unforgettable day on the Great Barrier Reef with a Quicksilver catamaran to cruise to Agincourt Reef. With a spacious floating platform, there's opportunities to snorkel, dive, or stay dry with a semi-submersible tour.

DAY 10 & 11: DAYS AT LEISURE

We've left you two free days as the area has so much to offer! Choose to venture further north into the Daintree rainforest and Cape Tribulation, soar over the Tablelands aboard a hot air balloon, or head back to the water with a Low Isles cruise.

DAY 12: DEPART CAIRNS

Time to leave Cairns for the journey home – or maybe this is just the start! Extend your Australian adventure by visiting another state, and experience yet another side of this great and varied land.

Please see austravel.com for full details of accommodation options.

Please Note: Prices are per person based on twin share and include eleven nights accommodation, and touring as mentioned. Supplements apply over special events and prices may vary with availability. Flights are not included.

BLUE MOUNTAINS AND HUNTER VALLEY

Immediately west just over an hour out of Sydney are the Blue Mountains - named after the blue mist that rises from the forests of eucalyptus that cover them. Reminiscent of a green Grand Canyon, it's an ideal place for bushwalking amongst the craggy peaks and cavernous gorges, and is a haven for wildlife. To the north is the Hunter Valley, a picturesque haven for Sydney-siders, with world class vineyards and rolling countryside. Both areas can be easily explored on an escorted tour or a self drive.

Greater Sydney – Blue Mountains and Hunter Valley

3 Day Escorted Tour from £714 per adult

Join an ultimate Aussie experience from Sydney, on a personalised small group tour which includes some amazing wildlife moments with koalas and kangaroos. Also see Australia's Grand Canyon - the Three Sisters and taste fine wines in the vineyards of the Hunter Valley.

DAY 1: SYDNEY - BLUE MOUNTAINS

Join a small deluxe group tour to the Blue Mountains, getting off the beaten track to remote lookouts in the countryside, and taking a 30 minute walk to see the waterfalls. Arrive at your Blue Mountains hotel with the rest of the day at leisure before an overnight stay.

DAY 2: BLUE MOUNTAINS - HUNTER VALLEY

Travel through the mountains with a stop at Govetts Leap for spectacular views. Take morning tea at Mount Tomah Botanic Gardens, before travelling on to the Hunter Valley for lunch at a vineyard cafe, and the afternoon at a boutique winery for tastings. (B,L)

DAY 3: HUNTER VALLEY - SYDNEY

Enjoy the morning at leisure – perhaps add on a scenic hot air balloon or visit the Hunter Valley Wine School. After lunch there's time at a local brewery with beer tasting paddle. Depart the Hunter Valley to return back into Sydney around 5pm. (B)

Please Note: Tour departs on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Sunday at 7am, arriving back in Sydney on the last day around 5pm. Includes guide and meals as mentioned. Please bring carry-on size baggage – large luggage to be left at Sydney hotel. (A187PG)

7 Day Suggested Itinerary from £675 per adult

DAY 1: CAIRNS

Take time to explore Cairns, with the popular esplanade full of restaurants and cafés, and a swimming lagoon perfect for the hot, sunny afternoon.

DAY 2: CAIRNS – PORT DOUGLAS

Drive north up the scenic Captain Cook Highway, perhaps stopping on one of the spectacular beaches en route for a picnic – the road here hugs the jaw-dropping coastline and offers panoramic photo opportunities. In Port Douglas wander through the friendly village or relax on Four Mile Beach.

DAY 3: PORT DOUGLAS

A day to explore the Great Barrier Reef! Quicksilver depart from the central Marina and their speedy catamarans reach the Outer Barrier Reef in just 90 minutes. The reef platform at Agincourt is a hive of activity, with snorkelling, diving and even heli trips available.

DAY 4: PORT DOUGLAS – CAPE TRIBULATION

Leave Port Douglas and heading north you'll pass Mossman Gorge, here Austravel recommends a guided walk with chance to swim in the cool waters. Take the ferry across the Daintree River and head into the rainforest, watching out for Cassowary's which amble slowly across the road. Take time to explore the boardwalks through the rainforest which lead you to white sand beaches.

DAY 5: CAPE TRIBULATION – PALM COVE

Heading south back across the Daintree River, through the seaside hamlet of Wonga, and arrive at Palm Cove, your home for the next two nights.

DAY 6: PALM COVE

A day to relax and explore the popular town of Palm Cove, alternatively why not book a day trip to discover the scenic railway at Kuranda and the Skyrail which travels high above the rainforest canopy.

DAY 7: PALM COVE – CAIRNS

Return back to Cairns for your onward journey, or why not continue your road trip by heading south towards Brisbane along the Queensland coast.

NORTHERN TERRITORY

The Northern Territory has a bit of a split personality. The Top End is an eco wonderland; from the waterfalls of Litchfield Park to the wetlands of Kakadu. By contrast, the Red Centre is named after the fiery coloured sands of the arid Outback desert. A sacred place, where Uluru (Ayers Rock) and Kata Tjuta (The Olgas) brood over the landscape and where dingoes, wallabies and emus make their home.

TOP EXPERIENCES

See the sunset, sunrise and changing colours over Uluru and Kata Tjuta.

Swim in the beautiful waterfalls of Litchfield and Kakadu National Parks.

Camp under the stars in a swag, or a luxury tent, for a true Outback experience.

FACT FILE

Climate: The Northern Territory's climate is tropical with two seasons - the Dry and the Green (Wet). The Dry season starts around May, and the Green around November.

Driving Times:

Uluru to Alice Springs - 5 hours & 30 minutes.

Alice Springs to Kings Canyon - 6 hours.

Darwin to Kakadu - 3 hours & 30 minutes.

Darwin to Katherine - 4 hours.

Kings Canyon to Uluru - 4 hours

GMT: + 9.5 hours

RED CENTRE

The immense monolith of Uluru in the Outback of the Red Centre is visually stunning and a major site of Aboriginal cultural importance. Also nearby are Kings Canyon and Kata Tjuta, a 36 dome rock formation located to the west of the National Park. Walk into Olga Gorge to get some perspective of the size of these rocks before watching the sun change colours on the rocks of both Kata Tjuta and Uluru.

Day Tour

Uluru Sunrise and Kata Tjuta

Rise early to see the morning rays light up Uluru in the heart of the Outback. After sunrise travel round the base of Uluru to the Mutitjulu Waterhole to view Aboriginal Art and learn about the history and culture of this area. Following this, visit the Uluru-Kata Tjuta Cultural Centre to see locally made arts and crafts on this half day tour.

HOBART

The small city of Hobart sits in the sheltering arms of the giant Mount Wellington. In its heyday, Hobart's whalers and ship builders enjoyed a thriving trade from the handsome Georgian warehouses that decorate the harbour. Today, the harbour fills with yachts for the Royal Hobart Regatta, and the warehouses at Salamanca Place house boutiques, cafés and galleries.

NEW ZEALAND

Home to vibrant cities, rolling hills, native forests and a rich Maori influence, New Zealand is a fascinating tapestry of landscape and culture.

INTRODUCTION TO NEW ZEALAND

New Zealand has a spectacular landscape, contrasting from steaming volcanoes, deep fiords and lush rainforest. An added bonus is that all this is found within a country comparable in size to the UK, but with a population of only four million people, this is one of the world's least crowded places. A holiday destination providing a haven for those looking for peace and rejuvenation - as well as being a playground for thrill seekers and adventurers!

TOP EXPERIENCES

Hawke's Bay - with an abundance of famous vineyards, no trip to New Zealand would be completely without a days wine tasting.

Fiordland - visit Milford or Doubtful Sound to see the breathtaking steep valleys and native wildlife.

Queenstown - the adventure capital of New Zealand, home to a host of activities from bungee jumping to jetboating.

Kaikoura - head out from the coastline to see the vast array of marine life, including majestic sperm whales.

Rotorua - this geothermal wonderland boasts geysers, bubbling mud pools and steam vents.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

Currency - The currency is the New Zealand dollar (NZD).

Climate - The warmest months of the year are December, January and February, where maximum temperatures can be up to 30°C. With the good weather, summer months are peak for travel to New Zealand. Winter runs from June to August when the mountains in the South Island are snow-capped.

Visa - British citizens do not require a visa to travel to New Zealand (for a stay of less than 6 months), making it an easy destination to travel to.

Let Austravel tailor-make your dream trip, after all we don't just go there, we know there!

WHAT'S ON IN NEW ZEALAND

To help plan your trip to the 'Land of the Long White Cloud', we've put together some top picks of events and festivals happening across the country. Whether you want to sample the gourmet food and world class wines at one of the foodie festivals, join a cycle race around Australasia's largest lake, or celebrate the beginning of the Maori New Year.

JANUARY

Wings Over Wairarapa, Masterton

Head to the famous wine region just an hour from Wellington with four days showcasing over 100 years of aviation.

FEBRUARY

Marlborough Wine and Food Festival, South Island

Held on one of the most beautiful and well known vineyards of the region, Brancott Estate, this festival hosts over 8,000 visitors annually, with wine tutorials and fabulous local produce.

MARCH

Arts Festival, Auckland

Showcasing the cultural diversity and energy of the largest city in New Zealand, this biennial event celebrates dance, music, theatre and film with over 300 events and 1000 artists.

Balloons over Waikato, Hamilton

This five day festival attracts spectators, tourists and balloon enthusiasts from all over the world, the highlight of which is The Glow, a night time event with illuminated balloons.

APRIL

Pasifika Festival, Auckland

A celebration of all things Pacific Islands, this festival reaches its 24th birthday at the 2016 spectacular. In Auckland, Western Springs Park is transformed into 11 Pacific Island villages, as 1000 performers showcase traditional food, crafts, dance and music.

MAY

Whale Watching, Kaikoura

Whilst the rich waters off the coast of Kaikoura attract whales year round, May is an ideal time to visit, when crowds have lessened and the days are crisp and sunny. Keep your eyes peeled for the dolphins and seals which also inhabit these waters!

JUNE

Matariki, National

Matariki is the star cluster which appears in early June, marking the beginning of the Maori New Year. Across the country, take part in festivals, concerts and cultural performances.

Winter Festival, Queenstown

Marking the beginning of the ski season, the lakeside town of Queenstown plays host to bands, street parties, comedy acts and firework displays, alongside winter activities such as mountain bikes on snow and an ice rink.

JULY

Cadbury Chocolate Festival, Dunedin

A week long party of all things chocolate! With chocolate tours, painting, and even chocolate facials, make sure you head to Baldwin Street – the world's steepest street – as giant Jaffa's, orange sugar coated chocolate balls, are raced down the hill.

AUGUST

Jazz and Blues Festival, Bay of Islands

Enjoy top performances from musicians from both Australia and New Zealand in the stunning Bay of Islands to the north of Auckland. Set across six different venues, the landscape comes alive with the sounds of smooth jazz and sultry blues.

SEPTEMBER

Spring Festival, Wellington

Held in the beautifully landscaped Botanical Gardens in Wellington, soak up the colours and fragrances of the spring flowers whilst enjoying a range of activities from workshops to guided walks.

OCTOBER

Summer Kickstarter, Waimarino

Head to the Coromandel Peninsula with your swimmers for a fun day at Waimarino Adventure Park. With water slides, diving boards, Tarzan swings, gladiator poles, and the human launchpad 'The Blob', this is a great day out for all the family.

NOVEMBER

Cycle Challenge, Lake Taupo

One of the world's premier cycling events, Lake Taupo hosts the scenic Cycle Challenge each year with routes around the undulating landscape, including the famous 160km race around the largest lake in New Zealand.

Toast Martinborough, North Island

A celebration of great food and wine, treat the taste buds at New Zealand's premier food and music festival, all within the picturesque setting of Martinborough vineyards.

DECEMBER

New Years Eve, National

As the clock strikes midnight, welcome in the New Year with a chilled glass of bubbles in a luxury lodge, on an overnight cruise through the unique Fiordland region, or on a beautiful beach in one of the picturesque National Parks. Rhythm and Vines music festival in Gisborne is an annual three-day spectacular.

WILDLIFE & ADVENTURE

New Zealand is known as a country bursting with nature and wildlife, and offers an incredibly diverse indigenous range, from the flightless Kiwi to a bounty of marine life. And when it comes to adventure New Zealanders are passionate about hiking – or ‘tramping’ as the Kiwis call it. Not surprising when the country offers some of the finest scenery in the world, with well cared for tracks and highly knowledgeable guides. There are plenty of day hike options, but to really experience the wilderness a multi-night hike is a must.

1 BAY OF ISLANDS

Travel north to the Bay of Islands in search of playful bottlenose dolphins. The best way to catch a glimpse of these creatures in their natural habitat is to take a cruise to Cape Brett and the Hole in the Rock, before going ashore to one of the most beautiful islands in the area to explore scenic walking tracks. Take your swimmers for the opportunity to swim with these magnificent mammals!

DAY TOUR FROM PAIHIA FROM £44 PER ADULT

2 TONGARIRO CROSSING

The Tongariro Crossing is renowned as one of the world’s finest day walks and, although steep in places, it is well worth the effort. The trail leads you past volcanic craters, lava flows, thermal vents and colourful lakes, offering unsurpassable views over central North Island. Your expert guide will ensure you are safe at all times and will provide detailed information on both the geology and the legends that surround Tongariro National Park.

Spectacular Bay of Islands: AAT Kings

4 Day Escorted Tour from £499 per adult

Travel with AAT Kings to see all the highlights of northland, from bustling Auckland to the picturesque Bay of Islands.

DAY 1: AUCKLAND – BAY OF ISLANDS

Drive out of Auckland up the west coast of northland and visit Waitangi Treaty House and Grounds, where local guides will provide you with a history of this area. A cruise will then take you across the bay to the spectacular Hole in the Rock, where you'll hold your breath as the skipper navigates you through the narrow space. (D)

DAY 2: BAY OF ISLANDS AT LEISURE

A day where the itinerary is up to you – perhaps travel up to Cape Reinga, the most northern point of New Zealand, where the Tasman Sea and the Pacific Ocean meet. You'll also have the option to visit Ninety Mile Beach, enjoy a day's sailing or even head onto the water on a guided kayak trip. (B)

DAY 3: BAY OF ISLANDS - AUCKLAND

There's time to wander along the beachfront at Paihia, join the locals at a waterfront cafe, or hop on the ferry to Russell, the first capital of New Zealand with its unique whaling history, before returning in the afternoon to Auckland. (B)

DAY 4: DEPART AUCKLAND

After breakfast you'll be transferred to Auckland airport for your onward journey, or ask our expert Travel Designers about options to continue your journey south to Rotorua or the Coromandel Peninsula.

Please Note: Prices are per person and include three nights twin share accommodation, selected meals, and touring as mentioned. Accommodation, board bases and prices are subject to change with availability. Tour departs daily at 6.45am from Auckland hotels. (ZB4)

HALF DAY TOUR FROM £97 PER ADULT

With over 60 years experience cruising the islands of Fiji, Blue Lagoon Cruises know how to show you the best of the South Pacific. With a maximum of 4 hours cruising per day there is more time for exploring onshore - visit remote island villages, discover ancient Fijian culture, enjoy our breathtaking beautiful private beach on Nanuya Lai Lai Island. Swim with manta rays (seasonal), and stop off at the Sacred Islands and Sawa i lau Caves. Our boutique ship, Fiji Princess accommodates 68 passengers, meaning our cruises are always personal and friendly, complimented by our 100% Fijian crew.

4 Day Explorer Cruise

Hibiscus Deck From £605 per person

Orchid Deck From £791 per person

DAY 1: Set sail aboard Fiji Princess, heading to Modriki Island, where the Tom Hanks' movie Castaway was filmed. There's time for a swim before enjoying the Captain's Welcome dinner and performances by the crew.

DAY 2: Beach walk, snorkel or perhaps swim with sharks, and visit the chiefly village of Soso. Tonight the anchorage is Soso Bay, where you can enjoy cocktails on the sun deck and a Thali dinner.

DAY 3: Sunday is a day of rest, so relax and enjoy the island way of life. Visit an island village church for a humbling and quintessential Fijian experience, or join the Chef for a Fijian cooking lesson. Tonight, our anchorage is Naukacuvu Island.

DAY 4: After an early morning snorkel, swim or kayak trip, cruise to the Sacred Islands, boasting some of the most beautiful beaches and coral reefs in Fiji. After lunch on board, say farewell to your friendly crew and take the high speed catamaran for Port Denarau.

Please Note: Departs Fridays at 3pm.

5 Day Wanderer Cruise

Hibiscus Deck From £806 per person

Orchid Deck From £1,054 per person

DAY 1: Head out from Port Denarau on a dedicated high speed catamaran to the Sacred Islands, a breathtaking backdrop for a day's swimming, snorkelling and relaxation. Enjoy the Captain's Welcome dinner.

DAY 2: The private island peninsula and stunning azure waters of Blue Lagoon are your next port of call. Watch as the crew position the vessel right up to the beach and tie her off to the coconut trees! Spend the evening under the stars feasting on a traditional Lovo meal.

DAY 3: Start the day with a guided island walk with panoramic views, before cruising to Sawa-i-Lau Island. From here you can visit the sacred caves and Tamasua village where villagers host the evening's food and entertainment.

DAY 4: The last island stop is Drawaqa, which offers a chance to snorkel with the magnificent manta rays between May and October. Visit the local island school or relax on board. Dinner this evening is served under the stars.

DAY 5: Time to cruise back to Port Denarau for your onward journey.

Please Note: Departs Monday at 12.15pm.

Combine both of these itineraries for a 7 night Escape to Paradise cruise.

Please Note: Prices are per person and based on twin share accommodation. Choose between Hibiscus or Orchid Deck Cabins. Orchid Deck Cabins include a welcome fruit platter, Nespresso coffee pod machine and tea selection, daily stocked mini-bar and Pure Fiji sunscreen pack. All cruises depart from Port Denarau. Alternatively it is possible to organise direct transfers from selected Mamanuca resorts so you can enjoy the best combination of island resort and cruising.
